DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 2 - "the waist part" lacks antecedent basis. The applicant is reminded that the human body is not statutory subject matter and may not be positively recited as part of an invention.

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, "the thread having a thickness more than the wire" as set forth in claim 7 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1-5, 8-13, 16-18 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rhodes (6,453,204).

Claim 1 - element -16- is considered a band with two wires -22- and -22'- and at least two magnets -26- and -26'-.

Claim 2 - element -64- including band -16- at the waist portion of the sock as shown in figure 4.

Claim 3 - the device includes elastic bands as set forth in column 3 line 47.

Claim 4 - wires -22- and -22'- have a thickness of a thread. It is the examiner's position that because no dimensions have been set forth for the thread that the wires have a thickness of some known thread.

Claim 5 - the wire has a width of a strip wherein the strip has the width of the wire.

Claim 8 - the wires are connected to the band at elements -12- and -12'-.

Claim 9 - wires -40-, -50-, -42- and -52- extend along the entire length of the band.

Claim 10 - the wires -22- and -22'- extend to an extent as shown in the figures.

Claim 11 - the wires are insulated, column 5 lines 29..

Claim 12 - the band has an open end as shown at -70- in figure 4.

Claim 13 - the wires are ductile and inherently have a high coefficient.

Claim 16 - wires -22- and -22'- are connected in series with conductors -40- and -50-.

Claim 17 - wires -22- and -22'- are in parallel.

Claims 18 and 20- elements -28- and -28'- form pockets.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 6, 14 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rhodes (6,453,204).

The device of Rhodes teaches a device as claimed but does not teach the wire being weaved with another thread in the band. The examiner is taking official notice that it is old and well known in the art to weave conductors through elastic bands.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the medical arts at the time the invention was made to weave the leads of Rhodes through the elastic band in a zigzag or weave pattern to eliminate or minimize the possibility of breaking the leads as the elastic band stretches. Weaving the lead would produce an expected result with a high expectation of success.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 7 and 19 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. US Patents 4,815,473, 4,480,596 and 3,885,383 teach related magnetic therapy devices and elastic bands with conductors.
